TUNA TIMES

Commodore Ron Tholen

Hi, folks. I truly enjoyed my first month as your commodore. Thank you for all the cards and well wishes. Along with Holly, I will do my best to move the Club forward in the next year. Welcome to our new Bridge Officers, Rear Commodore Eric Engard and Fleet Captain John Howell. These men are already working hard in their new positions, as are all the officers on the Bridge. The Commodore's Cocktail Party/Past Commodores/Past Presidents party was well attended and the food was great.

The Fall Bass and Blues Tournament is well on its way, thanks to Guido Giffionello and the Tournament Committee.

What can I say, but thank you to PC George McNamara and his committee for their great "Friday Night Dinners". Great food by Blue Collar Caterers, great drinks and most of all, great friends. "Nothing Better"!

In closing, as it's been said many times before..."It's your club, please come out and support it".

Until next month...

As the days get shorter and the nights grow colder, there is still plenty of warmth to be spread at the club. Our October general meeting will be held on the 24th at 7:30. Coming up in November, we have our two fall work parties. The first is scheduled for the 1st and we can use all the help we can get. We need to rake leaves, clean the grill, take down the tents and put away the picnic tables. Bring your rakes and gloves. The second work party is on the 8th. We need to finish raking the leaves and then tackle the overgrowth of brush behind the club house. Bring your chain saws, rakes and gloves and if anyone has a brush hog, please let me know as soon as possible so we can avoid renting one. The November Friday Night Dinner is on the 14th. See the flyer in this edition of the Tuna Times. The Bass and Blues Tournament Awards will be held on November 23rd at 1PM, with the FRTC Open House following at 6PM

Rear Commodore Eric Engard

Hi Everyone. With the Summer fishing season gone, there is plenty to fish for in the Fall/Winter season. Blackfish goes from 1 to 6 fish on November 16th; Sea Bass opens back up to 15 fish on October 18th and the offshore guys are hoping for a few more weather windows to hit the canyons.

The Tournament Committee has the Bass and Blues Captain's Meeting on Friday, October 17th. Let's get out and support this tournament. We need to all get together to support the Tuna Tournament for next year. It will take all year for this event to happen. It can be a premier event for us to get our name out there for new members and as a great source of new revenue for the Club. This will not happen unless everyone pitches in.

We have two new divisions in the Angler of the Year Awards - Inshore - Tuna (Bluefin) and Offshore - Tuna (all the others). Last, but certainly not least, as an extension of the traditional shirt Angler of the Year Awards divisions, I'm opening it up to any species of fish for a Certificate Division. If you weigh in any fish and it is the heaviest fish of that species for the year, you will receive an Angler of the Year Certificate for that species.

TIGHT LINES - Eric

TUNA TIMES/ NOVEMBER 2014

Fleet Captain John Howell

FRTC Fleet Maneuver: LBI Chowderfest - The good weather window missed our Tuna Tournament but landed smack on LBI's Chowderfest Sunday. The day dawned with bright fall sunshine and temperatures cool enough to make sipping hot clam chowder even more of a treat.

This dejected Tuna Tournament fisherman and a few other members of the club salvaged the back half of FRTC Garden State Classic weekend by sampling some of the best red and white chowders imaginable and watching Comicon heroes like Souper Man and villains like Broth Vader parading around the Beach Haven fairgrounds.

The chowder champions for 2014 were named after the chowder kettle's levels were lowered and the beer truck loads lightened. The votes were cast and compiled. The popular vote winners were Manhattan: Stefanos'; New England: Howard's Restaurant.

Upcoming FRTC International Fleet Maneuver:

Tropical Saltwater BONEFISH Flyfishing Adventure - March 07-14 2015

Los Roques, Venezuela has miles of wadeable flats, good-sized bonefish, consistently good weather, and a long, stable season. Hands-down this fishery offers some of the best bonefishing that exists anywhere on the planet. If you're an angler looking for big bonefish, large numbers of bonefish, and fishing scenarios that revolve almost entirely around wade fishing, then Los Roques is the perfect location for your next fly fishing adventure. Truly a world-class destination, Los Roques provides varied and interesting fishing complemented by prolific birdlife, comfortable accommodations and an unforgettable island atmosphere. Los Roques is a necklace of islands in the Caribbean Sea situated 80 miles off the north coast of Venezuela. Los Roques is an unspoiled atoll, characterized by its extremely clear waters, magnificent coral beds, diverse and varied flats, sandy beaches and hundreds of smaller mangrove cays all with incredible natural beauty. Los Roques was declared a National Park in the mid-70's, and then in the mid 90's, even more environmentally conscious regulations were enacted to protect the overall environment of the entire Archipelago. Some flats are coral, some are soft marl covered with turtle grass and sea weed, however most flats are firm, clean white, or golden in color, and easy to navigate. You will also be fishing extensive sand flats and beach flats, channels, cuts, coral shallows, mangroves, and massive muds created by hundreds of fish schooled up and feeding. In sum, Los Roques represents a bonefisherman's wading paradise. Los Roques continues to be one of the best kept secrets in saltwater fly fishing. Although bonefish are the main attraction in Los Roques, tarpon from 10 to 100 pounds are frequently landed. They can often be seen rolling in the channels and occasionally on the deeper flats. Permit are often seen and occasionally caught. Other available species at Los Roques include barracuda, snook, cero mackerel, bonito and a variety of snappers and hard fighting jacks.

CAPACITY: Sixteen (16) anglers for the week. Four fisherman from our group have already signed up and provided a deposit. In order to confirm a reservation "Yellow Dog" will need to collect a 50% deposit for the trip. The price on this one hurts a little bit.

A letter to the membership from the Tournament Director

Hello, members. It's been a while since I had to write a column for the Times, but this one is unfortunately, a necessary one. As you know, we have different Committees to help spread the work load around. When we have a cleanup there are usually volunteers that show up to help. That makes the job go a lot smoother and takes the pressure off of the committee. When the Tournament Committee used to sell ads for the Tournament book, it was primarily to make money for the Club. The rest of the tournament season was covered by a combination of entry fees, 50/50, raffles and shirt sales. Unfortunately, it got to the point that we had to give up the ad books because we were tired of running ragged trying to get the ads. I asked the General Membership numerous times for their help and support with the Ad books, but it fell on deaf ears. During the period of the last 3 years that we published the ad book there were 4 ads sold by members. This prompted us to cancel the ad book due to a lack of help. We used to give back to the club anywhere from eight thousand to sixteen thousand dollars each October. Now without the book, we are lucky to give back three thousand dollars. Just because the dues were raised does not mean that we don't help anymore, or that we don't have to keep trying to generate more income for the Club. We tried this year to run a Tuna Tournament to try to boost the committee income. I reached out to the membership to try to get some help manning weigh stations. Out of eighty members there were only two that could find a few hours to volunteer. That is sad. I believe the membership has assumed that the Committee will get the job done without any outside help so why bother volunteering. I can tell you that we are getting tired. We need help! I personally am tired of asking for help and getting little or none. I work my guys at Ocean Pipe Works very hard. They are expected to work hard and go the extra mile. That is because they get paid to do their job. I cannot and will not drive the "volunteers" that are on my Tournament Committee to the breaking point. They do their job because they enjoy the camaraderie of the Committee and the ability to help the Club prosper. I understand that not all members of the Club are fisherman, but they still can help out. If you are a new member and want to get involved with the Club, the Tournament Committee would be a great start. Not only do we run the tournaments, but we also go to the JCAA Sportsperson of the Year Dinner representing the club. We also go to dinner once a month and have a great time. Oh, by the way, if you are interested we meet every Tuesday, 7:30 PM at the club.
